1 STATUS, DEFINITIONS AND CONSTRUCTION

1.1 Status

1.1.1 These Rules were adopted by the Supervisory Board on 13 December 2019.

1.1.2 On that date, each of the Supervisory Directors declared:

- (a) to apply and to be bound by the obligations of these Rules to the extent they apply to the Supervisory Board and the Supervisory Directors; and
- (b) to procure that when new Supervisory Directors are appointed, these Supervisory Directors shall render a declaration referred to under (a) above.

1.2 Definitions and interpretation

1.2.1 In these Rules capitalised terms have the meaning as set out in Schedule 1.

1.2.2 Any reference in these Rules to "in writing" means in writing or by other reproducible electronic communication.

1.2.3 Any reference to "including" means including but not limited to.

1.2.4 If there is a discrepancy between an English term and a Dutch term used to clarify the same, the meaning of the Dutch term shall prevail.

1.3 Construction

1.3.1 References to Schedules and Clauses are references to clauses of and Schedules to these Rules, unless the context requires otherwise.

1.3.2 Schedules form an integral part of these Rules.

2 COMPOSITION OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD, DIVISION OF DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

2.1 Composition of the Supervisory Board

2.1.1 The Supervisory Board shall prepare a profile of its size and composition, taking into account the nature of the Company's business and its activities, with due observance of Clause 5.7. The profile as per 13 December 2019 is set out in Schedule 2.

2.1.2 The Supervisory Board must maintain a rotation schedule to prevent invalid reappointments. The rotation schedule as per 13 December 2019 is set out in Schedule 3.

2.1.3 Supervisory Directors shall retire early in the event of inadequate performance, structurally conflicting interests (tegenstrijdig belang), and other events as a result of which retirement is deemed necessary at the discretion of the Supervisory Board.

2.2 Responsibilities

2.2.1 The general responsibilities of the Supervisory Board are set out in Schedule 4.

2.3 Chairman and Vice-Chairman

2.3.1 The Supervisory Board appoints one of the Supervisory Directors as Chairman and one of its members as Vice-Chairman.

2.3.2 The Chairman cannot be a former Managing Director and must be independent pursuant to best practice provision 2.1.8 of the Code.

2.3.3 The responsibilities of the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman are set out in Schedule 5.

3 COMMITTEES OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD

3.1 General

3.1.1 The Supervisory Board may assign the preparation of its decision-making on certain topics to one or more permanent or ad hoc Committees.

3.1.2 The task of the Committees is to advise the Supervisory Board and prepare the decision-making of the Supervisory Board. The existence of Committees does not diminish the responsibility of the Supervisory Board and the Supervisory Directors. The Committees cannot adopt resolutions (on behalf) of the Supervisory Board.

3.1.3 From its midst the Supervisory Board appoints the Committee members among which a chairman. In addition the Supervisory Board appoints for each Committee a secretary. The secretary does not need to be a Supervisory Director.

3.1.4 The Committees report on a regular basis to the Supervisory Board about their actions, reviews, proposals, and findings.

3.1.5 Should one or more Committees as referred to in Clause 3.2.1 not or no longer exist, the Supervisory Board shall take over the tasks that were assigned to that Committee.

3.1.6 The Supervisory Board as well as each of the Committees may, as far as necessary or appropriate, obtain professional advice. The Company shall make available the financial means for this purpose.

3.2 Permanent Committees

3.2.1 The Supervisory Board has the following permanent Committees:

- (a) the Audit Committee, with duties and internal proceedings as set out in Schedule 6;
- (b) the Capital Programme, Operations & Investments Committee, with duties and internal proceedings as set out in Schedule 7;
- (c) the People Committee, with duties and internal proceedings as set out in Schedule 8; and
- (d) the Safety, Sustainability & Stakeholders Committee, with duties and internal proceedings as set out in Schedule 9.

3.3 Ad hoc Committees

3.3.1 Ad hoc Committees are established when the Supervisory Board resolves this.

3.3.2 The duties and internal proceedings of ad hoc Committees are set out in writing by the Supervisory Board and are deemed to form part of these Rules.

4 COMPANY SECRETARY

4.1 Duties and responsibilities

4.1.1 The Company Secretary (or another person designated for that purpose) assists the Supervisory Board and ensures that all procedures as required by law, the Articles of Association and these Rules are complied with. The Company Secretary (or another person designated for that purpose) assists the Chairman in organising Supervisory Board meetings.

4.2 Appointment and dismissal

4.2.1 Subject to the approval of the Supervisory Board, the Management Board appoints and dismisses the Company Secretary.

5 MEETINGS OF THE SUPERVISORY BOARD AND DECISION-MAKING

5.1 Convening meetings and agenda

- 5.1.1 Meetings will be held in accordance with a meeting schedule to be annually set by the Supervisory Board. Additional meetings are convened at the request of the Chairman or two Supervisory Directors jointly.
- 5.1.2 Meetings are convened in a timely manner by the Company Secretary (or another person designated for that purpose) on behalf of the Chairman or two Supervisory Directors jointly or the Management Board. The notice must specify the meeting agenda and shall be dispatched seven working days before the meeting and sent to each Supervisory Director and the Management Board.
- 5.1.3 The Supervisory Director(s) or the Management Board convening a meeting set(s) the agenda for that meeting. Supervisory Directors may submit agenda items to the Supervisory Director(s) or the Management Board convening the meeting.

5.2 Meeting location

- 5.2.1 Meetings are normally held at the offices of the Company, but may also take place elsewhere.
- 5.2.2 Meetings may also be held by telephone or videoconference provided that all participants can hear each other simultaneously. Supervisory Directors attending the meeting by telephone or videoconference will be considered as present at the meeting.

5.3 Attendance

- 5.3.1 A Supervisory Director may be represented at a meeting by another Supervisory Director.
- 5.3.2 The Company Secretary (or another person designated for that purpose) attends the meetings of the Supervisory Board, unless the Supervisory Board determines otherwise.
- 5.3.3 The Managing Directors may attend the Supervisory Board meetings, unless the Supervisory Board decides otherwise.
- 5.3.4 The external auditor must be invited to attend the meeting at which the report of the external auditor on the audit of the financial statements is discussed.
- 5.3.5 Subject to Clause 3.1.6, the Supervisory Board may require that internal officers and external professional advisers attend its meetings.

5.4 Chairman of the meeting

5.4.1 The Chairman, or if the Chairman is not present at the meeting the Vice-Chairman, chairs the meeting. The Chairman can appoint another Supervisory Director as chairman for a specific meeting if both the Chairman and the Vice-Chairman cannot attend to that meeting, failing which the Supervisory Directors present at the meeting will appoint one of them as chairman of that meeting.

5.5 Adoption of resolutions - quorum requirements

5.5.1 The Supervisory Board may only adopt resolutions in a meeting if at least half of the Supervisory Directors is present or represented.

5.6 Adoption of resolutions - majority requirements

5.6.1 Each Supervisory Director has one vote.

5.6.2 Where possible, the Supervisory Board adopts its resolutions by unanimous vote. If this is not possible, the resolution is adopted by a majority of votes cast.

5.6.3 In the event of a tie and if requested by any Supervisory Director, the Supervisory Board shall take another vote cast in respect of the proposed resolution at the end of the meeting. In the event of a second tie, the proposed resolution shall be considered to have been rejected.

5.6.4 If there is insufficient (at the discretion of the chairman of the meeting) agreement on certain matters during the meeting, the chairman of the meeting may defer these matters for further discussion or withdraw the proposal for the resolution.

5.7 Resolutions concerning the profile

5.7.1 In deviation from Clauses 5.5 and 5.6, a resolution to amend the profile can only be passed by unanimous vote at a meeting in which all Supervisory Directors are present or represented, if the amendment concerns components of the profile for which this is required.

5.8 Meeting minutes

5.8.1 The Company Secretary (or another person designated for that purpose) shall prepare the meeting minutes. The minutes are adopted:

- (a) in the next meeting of the Supervisory Board; or
- (b) by the chairman and secretary of the particular meeting, after having consulted the Supervisory Directors present or represented at that meeting, following which either the Chairman or two (other) Supervisory Directors jointly shall sign the minutes.

5.8.2 The adopted and signed minutes shall be dispatched to all Supervisory Directors as soon as possible.

5.9 Adopting resolutions without holding a meeting

5.9.1 The Supervisory Board may also adopt resolutions without holding a meeting, provided that:

- (a) the resolutions are adopted in writing or by means of an electronic message that is legible and reproducible;
- (a) the motion in question has been submitted to all Supervisory Directors; and
- (b) all Supervisory Directors entitled to vote have consented to adopting the resolutions without holding a meeting.

5.9.2 These resolutions shall be recorded in the minutes of the next meeting.

5.9.3 Clauses 5.6.1 through 5.6.3 apply mutatis mutandis to adopting resolutions without holding a meeting.

5.10 Evidence of resolutions adopted

5.10.1 Resolutions can be evidenced by either the Chairman's signature or the signatures of two (other) Supervisory Directors jointly.

5.10.2 Resolutions are communicated to the Management Board without delay.

6 CONFLICTS OF INTEREST

6.1 Preventing conflicts of interest

6.1.1 Any conflict of interest between the Company and Supervisory Directors should be prevented. The Supervisory Board is responsible for dealing with any conflicts of interest between Supervisory Directors and the Company. Supervisory Directors must be alert to conflicts of interest and may not:

- (a) compete with the Company;
- (b) demand or accept substantial gifts from the Company for themselves or their spouse, registered partner or other life companion, foster child or relative by blood or marriage up to the second degree;
- (c) provide unjustified advantages to third parties at the Company's expense; and/or
- (d) take advantage of business opportunities that the Company is entitled to, for themselves or for their spouse, registered partner or other life companion, foster child or relative by blood or marriage up to the second degree.

6.2 Definition

6.2.1 For purposes of Clauses 6.2 through 6.6, a 'conflict of interest' means:

- (a) a direct or indirect personal conflict of interest (tegenstrijdig belang) within the meaning of article 2:140(5) Dutch Civil Code; and
- (b) any other situation which causes reasonable doubt about whether the Supervisory Director concerned is primarily guided in the decision-making process by the interests of the Company and its business.

6.2.2 A Supervisory Director has a potential conflict of interest if the Company intends to enter into a transaction with a legal entity:

- (a) in which that Supervisory Director has a material financial interest;
- (b) whose management or supervisory board includes a member who has a family relationship with that Supervisory Director; and/or
- (c) where that Supervisory Director has a management or supervisory position.

6.3 Obligation to report

6.3.1 A Supervisory Director, other than the Chairman or Vice-Chairman, must without delay report any conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest to the Chairman, or in the Chairman's absence, the Vice-Chairman. The Chairman must without delay report any conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest to the Vice-Chairman or, in the Vice-Chairman's absence, to the other Supervisory Directors. The Vice-Chairman must without delay report any conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest to the Chairman or, in the Chairman's absence, to the other Supervisory Directors. The Supervisory Director must provide all relevant information, including any relevant information concerning his or her spouse, registered partner or other life companion, foster child and relatives by blood or marriage up to the second degree.

6.4 Determination of conflicts of interest

6.4.1 The Supervisory Board decides whether a Supervisory Director has a conflict of interest; a Supervisory Director shall be deemed conflicted and shall thus not participate in the decision-making process regarding his or her own potential conflict of interest in accordance with Clause 6.5.

6.5 Consequences

6.5.1 A Supervisory Director shall not participate in deliberations and decision-making processes including but not limited to preparation and voting, of the Supervisory Board or a Committee regarding a subject in relation to which he or she has or is deemed to have a conflict of interest.

6.6 At arm's length and Supervisory Board approval

6.6.1 Management Board resolutions on a subject in respect of which the Supervisory Board found one or more Supervisory Directors to have a conflict of interest require the approval of the Supervisory Board. The Supervisory Board will only grant its approval if the transaction concerned is to be entered into by the Company on terms that are customary in the market.

7 RELATIONSHIP WITH THE MANAGEMENT BOARD, GENERAL MEETING AND EMPLOYEE-PARTICIPATION BODIES

7.1 Main contact person

7.1.1 The Chairman is the Supervisory Board's main contact for the Management Board, the General Meeting and any employee-participation body.

7.1.2 The Vice-Chairman is the Supervisory Board's main contact regarding the Chairman's performance.

7.2 General Meeting and requests for information

7.2.1 The Chairman, the CEO and the CFO shall participate in General Meetings, unless they are prevented from attending for well-founded reasons. As a rule, the Chairman shall chair the General Meeting, and shall decide on the contents of resolutions.

7.2.2 The Supervisory Board shall adequately provide the General Meeting with information it requires, unless important interests (zwaarwegende belangen) of the Company or any law, rules or regulations applicable to the Company prevent it from doing so.

- 7.2.3 If the Supervisory Board decides not to provide the General Meeting with all information requested based on an overriding interest of the Company, the Supervisory Board must explain this.

7.3 Management Board - resolutions requiring Supervisory Board approval

- 7.3.1 The Articles of Association provide that certain resolutions of the Management Board are subject to the approval of the Supervisory Board. Pursuant to article 14.1(p) of the Articles of Association the Supervisory Board is authorised to set threshold amounts for Supervisory Board approval in relation to certain Management Board resolutions. The Supervisory Board has set the threshold amount at 25 million euros. In addition, the Supervisory Board has set a threshold amount of 15 million euros for Supervisory Board approval in relation to each Management Board resolution that has not yet been covered in the Tactical Plan as approved by the Supervisory Board.

7.4 Management Board - evaluation

- 7.4.1 The Supervisory Board must regularly, and at least annually, evaluate the performance of the Management Board and the Managing Directors. The evaluation takes place without the Managing Directors being present.

7.5 Managing Directors and majority shareholders - conflicts of interest

- 7.5.1 The Supervisory Board is responsible for dealing with conflicts of interest between Managing Directors and/or shareholders on the one hand and the Company on the other hand.

- 7.5.2 The Management Board Rules contain the following provisions regarding conflicts of interest:

- (a) a Managing Director must without delay report any conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest to the Chairman and the other Managing Directors. The Managing Director must provide all relevant information, including any relevant information concerning his or her spouse, registered partner or other life companion, foster child and relatives by blood or marriage up to the second degree;
- (b) the Supervisory Board decides whether a Managing Director has a conflict of interest, without the Managing Director being present; and

- (c) Management Board resolutions on a subject in respect of which the Supervisory Board has found one or more Managing Directors to have a conflict of interest (i) may only be adopted if the transaction is to be entered into by the Company on terms that are customary in the market, and (ii) require the approval of the Supervisory Board.

7.5.3 All transactions between the Company and legal or natural persons who hold at least ten percent of the shares in the Company that are of material significance to the Company and/or to such persons require the approval of the Supervisory Board. The Supervisory Board will only grant its approval if the transaction is to be entered into by the Company on terms that are customary in the market.

8 ANNUAL EVALUATION OF SUPERVISORY DIRECTORS AND POSITIONS OUTSIDE THE COMPANY

8.1 Evaluation of Supervisory Directors

8.1.1 The Chairman of the Supervisory Board is the main contact of the Supervisory Board regarding the performance of Supervisory Directors other than the Chairman. The Vice-Chairman is the main contact of the Supervisory Board regarding the Chairman's performance.

8.1.2 The Supervisory Board must regularly, and at least annually, evaluate its own and each of the Supervisory Directors' performance.

8.2 Positions outside the Company

8.2.1 Supervisory Directors must inform the Supervisory Board before accepting positions outside the Company.

9 CONFIDENTIALITY

9.1.1 Each Supervisory Director shall treat all information and documentation obtained in connection with his or her position as Supervisory Director with the necessary discretion, integrity and confidentiality.

10 MISCELLANEOUS

10.1 Decision not to comply with these Rules

10.1.1 The Supervisory Board may occasionally resolve not to comply with these Rules by a resolution provided that (i) the non-compliance is not contrary to applicable law and the Articles of Association and (ii) the reasons for the non-compliance are properly recorded.

10.2 Amendment of these Rules

10.2.1 The Supervisory Board may amend these Rules by resolution.

10.3 Partial invalidity

10.3.1 If any provision of these Rules is held to be or becomes invalid (in each case either in its entirety or in part) that provision will to the extent of its invalidity be deemed not to form part of these Rules but the validity of the remainder of these Rules will not be affected.

10.4 Governing law and jurisdiction
